BUSINESS HISTORY Monica Rhee is a Senior Consultant for Pacific Life's Advanced Designs Unit, a highly recognized team of advanced market experts in the life insurance industry. She conducts research and composes marketing materials and specimen agreements on advanced planning strategies. She also prepares and conducts continuing education and marketing seminars on advanced market topics such as estate, charitable, and business planning. In addition, Monica supports and coordinates Pacific Life's Business Insurance Solutions (BIZ) Platform, which is designed to provide life insurance producers with all the resources they need to successfully sell life insurance in the business market.

Monica joined Pacific Life's Advanced Designs Unit in 2008. Prior to joining Pacific Life, she focused her practice on a wide variety of intellectual property, patent law, and maritime litigation. She was also in the financial industry working for Pacific Investment Management Company, State Street, and Wells Fargo.
