

Attire & Climate

Attire for the Total Solution Forum business sessions and evening functions is business casual. Casual attire is acceptable for the final night dinner on the beach – shorts and flip flops are appropriate.

The temperature during the conference is expected to be in the low 80s during the day and the high 60s in the evening. All of our evening functions are outside, so please bring a light jacket or sweater..

For current weather conditions, please click here.