

GREG REBER

LIFE INSURANCE DIVISION SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT CHIEF DISTRIBUTION OFFICER

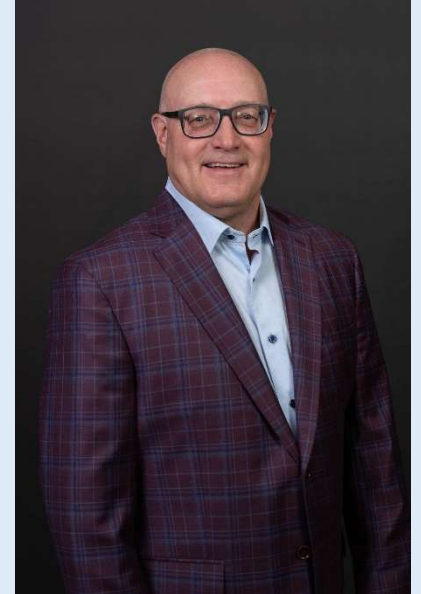

EDUCATION BA, Business Administration, 1983
University of Central Oklahoma

BUSINESS HISTORY As Senior Vice President & Chief Distribution Officer, Greg is responsible for the development and coordination of life insurance distribution in order to maximize opportunities across all sales channels, as well as delivering differentiated value to support Financial Professionals and select distribution partners.

As a member of the Senior Leadership Team, Greg is focused on the creation and execution of strategy benefiting Pacific Life and its clients.

Greg has 30 years of Life Insurance industry experience, with 20 years at Pacific Life. After joining Pacific Life as a sales director in the Oklahoma Branch in 1997, Greg spent time in Dallas and Kansas City recruiting and supporting life insurance agents and firms. Shortly after, he moved into a management role as Divisional Vice President focusing on growth in the Regional Life and National Account distribution channels at Pacific Life. In 2013, Greg was named Vice President of the Independent Producer Network within the Life Insurance Division of Pacific Life. In this role, he was responsible for marketing strategy and sales development in the RLO, M Financial, and COLI channels working with independent producers throughout the country.

Greg and his wife Bonnie reside in San Clemente, California, with their daughter Grace. They also have three sons, Cale, Bryant, and Grant.

✉ Greg.Reber@PacificLife.com
☎ (949) 420-6415

PACIFIC LIFE