

Chris Raham

Chris Raham is a principal of the firm with more than 20 years of experience serving the financial services industry, with a focus on insurance. He is responsible for the delivery of the firm's services supporting financial services institutions as they seek high-quality, cost-effective partners for their most important actuarial and analytical functions. Chris led the analytical maintenance of a leading mutual insurance company's retirement income product portfolios over a ten-year period before the client acquired the internal capabilities to assume ownership.
