

About Chuck Hollander, Jr.; Founder of Red Flag

Chuck is an industry insider and knows what it takes to challenge and inspire change in growth minded individuals and organizations.

Twenty-five years ago, Chuck entered the competitive field of selling complex life insurance solutions to select families and business owners. He has competed and won against almost every type of distribution channel in the life insurances industry. His background as a pioneer, entrepreneur and industry insider combined with his late partner's unparalleled background as a retired Admiral with 32-years as a Navy SEAL and former commander of all SEAL Teams positions his firm with a unique understanding and discipline in helping sales organizations unlock their hidden potential.

Some of Chuck's accolades and accomplishments include:

- One of the industry's top producers for decades
- Past president and chairman of the board of the Forum400, formerly known as The International Forum
- Certified Blue Ocean Strategy® consultant—one of the very few in North America
- His keynote presentations consistently earn top ratings in his ability to challenge status quo and inspire change within his audience and the organizations they represent.
