

Liz Young

Vice President – Services & Operations, American Century Investments

Liz Young has more than 30 years in the investment management industry. Her entire career has been with American Century Investments.

Currently Liz is the Vice President of Services and Operations and is responsible for overseeing the Contact Center, back office operations and operational compliance for the transfer agent, broker/dealer, and Registered Investment Advisor businesses. Liz is also the Chief Privacy Officer and Money Laundering Reporting Officer.

Liz participates on several industry committees including the ICI Fraud Working Group, the ICI Anti-Money Laundering Working Group, and the International Association of Privacy Professionals. Additionally, Liz holds FINRA Series 6, 26 and 99 licenses.

Liz's activities outside of work include trying to keep up with her four grandchildren, traveling and coaching Special Olympics swimming.